

Calinda Viva Cancun Resort Review

This timeshare resort is located in one of the most attractive areas of Cancun's hotel zone, on one of the finest beach areas, and within walking distance to the shopping center. Calinda Viva Cancun offers 210 rooms, all featuring ocean views. On site, enjoy the outdoor swimming pool and tennis courts. This timeshare is also known as Oasis Viva Beach.

According to Mark Nayman, The Calinda is an older hotel that seems to have been recently refurbished. The room was the size of a small studio, had been recently repainted with newer, comfortable beds and flooring in good condition. Maid service was provided daily and we had no complaints about the cleanliness. A safe was provided with the room which was a big plus for us.

The partial kitchen consisted of a two burner hotplate, bar fridge. There was a pool bar open during daylight hours and a restaurant opened during set times for the three meals of the day. There were a couple of small gift/snack shops on site and a travel agent was set up in the lobby to help people arrange tours.

The location of the Calinda is nice with several restaurants and bars just across the street. There was also a fair sized mall a few blocks away with lots of restaurants, bars, stores, a flea market etc.
