Gaze upon the crystal-blue waters of the Caribbean from Imperial Fiesta Club at Hotel Casa Maya. Located on the beach, this resort boasts three outdoor swimming pools, tennis courts, and a host of activities for seafaring guests. Sailboats, sailboards, and scuba and snorkeling equipment are available to help you enjoy the beautiful offshore world.

The resort had a full service spa, 2 tennis courts that looked in great shape, a nice looking workout room, indoor and outdoor restaurants which they would rotate for dinner service. Breakfast was always indoors with AC and an ocean view. An outdoor snack bar with beach and poolside service, Indoor bar that had a snack buffet for $8, 30 plus beach palapas, 3 pools which were very clean even through heavy use, 2 jacuzzis, internet use at $5 an hour.

This might have been the best all around staff that I've delt with during a vacation. We stayed at the Royal Mayan last year and the Casa Maya staff was just as good and was maybe even friendlier.

Our unit was spacious and very comfortable. The kitchen has a four burner cooktop (no oven), fridge, microwave, dishwasher, blender, and the usual kitchen basics that allows for some meal preparation. The resort staff is open to any reasonable request and they really do make a great effort to ensure that you are having a great vacation.

The units are cleaned daily and fresh linens are always available. This timeshare resort is fairly close to town, not too large (hence not too crowded or busy), away from the real noisy areas of the hotel zone, has easy access to many activities and has the feel of a home away from home.

The resort had a great location. The lobby and grounds are immaculate. The staff was very helpful and friendly. There were enough beach chairs on the beach to go around. The beach was swimmable and calm. The beach was a good size and had plenty of shallow areas which are great for kids. The bus stops were short walks and the bus fare is about 65 cents. You're close to several port docks to ride over to Isla Mujeres and purchase ocean activities. Punta Cancun is a 10min bus ride away. The Large Mexican Flag is across the street from the resort, but wasn't flying during our stay.

The Welcome Party on Monday evening was the best Welcome Party that we've ever been to at a timeshare. The party is on the beach, they setup tables and chairs, have a buffet with appetizers, for drinks rum punch, beer, margaritas, and wine. They also had entertainment. People were dancing on the beach; lots of fun.

Check-out is quick and could be squared up on Friday so you can express check-out on Sat. The bellhops arrive to take your bags quickly when called. Airport transfer arrived on time and we had no problems at the airport.
