

Beach Palace Review

September 13th, 2008

Mark Nayman finds Beach Palace to be being fully renovated in a fresh modern style. When it re-opened in December 2007, it has 15 floors featuring luxurious accommodations, all with double Jacuzzis. While the adults enjoy this new exciting amenity, the little ones can be busy participating in the activities at the “Kid Club”.

Several fine dining restaurants serving a varied cuisine will fill your demand for international-inspired foods. For those looking for a pampering experience, the new ultra-modern spa will offer exactly what you need: a combination of ancient spa therapies with new techniques and the know-how for a comprehensive spa experience. You can find windsurfing, scuba diving, parasailing, and fishing nearby.

Planning a meeting? Modern meeting facilities will be at hand. Small groups can take advantage of the new amenities in a complete all-inclusive retreat. The Beach Palace timeshare resort offers a mandatory all-inclusive program. The Beach Palace is at Km 11.5 in Cancun’s hotel zone. It is the newest and smallest (200 rooms) of the Palace Resorts in the Cancun area but perhaps the one with the most ‘personality’. The accommodations are adequate, but the staff more than made up for the lack of opulent surroundings. The beach is world class and the water is clear and beautiful. Don’t worry about drinking water, there is no problem here.

The Beach Palace timeshare resort offers a lot of amenities. We enjoy going there. The beach is wonderful, the rooms are beautiful, and the people/staff there treat you wonderfully. The maid service is phenomenal. There are lots of activities to do when we are there. It’s close to shopping and transportation services. Across the street from the Flamingo Mall. Short bus ride to Kukulcan Mall. Lots of tours and things to do.
