The Royal Mayan has the friendliest and most responsive staff. This timeshare resort is very clean and there are always workers cleaning. The daily maid service included is a big plus. Check in moves smoothly, the men at the desk are friendly and helpful.

The Royal Mayan has plenty of activities to keep you busy and provide the transportation to hit the clubs in VIP style. Service by the pool and hotel eateries is nothing short of excellent. The staff is always very pleasant and couldn't do enough for the guests. Be sure to enjoy visiting the other Royal Resort sites in Cancun.

The rooms are especially spacious. The layout of the two bedroom unit is well thought out; a large dressing area is outside the toilet and shower room. A well placed make-up mirror and medicine cabinet is an added bonus. The kitchen is complete with all necessary appliances and includes a very nice set of dishes including several wine glasses. The dining area, six could easily be accommodated at the table. The deck is large and has the benefit of entering it from the living room or either bedroom. There is an ocean view. Plenty of closet space and a good size safe, in each bedroom are very useful. The living room furniture is very comfortable and adequate for the space.

The activities are good, there is plenty to do. From tennis, and yoga and miniature golf to water aerobics to dance lessons and parties, there is plenty of options and yet it doesn't overwhelm. Happy hour is fantastic, great drinks, comfortable atmosphere, a nice mix of ages and families. The prices in the market don't force you to go off site to buy basic groceries, especially water. The restaurants on site are great and quite a surprise too, many offerings and reasonably priced.
