Sandy Point Beach Club is known in legend as the home of Robinson Crusoe, Tobago remains an unspoiled paradise island of the Caribbean. It offers great snorkeling; scuba diving; dense rain forest trails to explore; and warm, friendly people to welcome you. Located in the popular Crown Point area, Sandy Point Beach Club is comfortable and casual, offering long, lazy days and unforgettable sunsets. Nearby are many good restaurants and two famous beaches, Store Bay and Pigeon Point.

This is a smaller timeshare resort right on the beach, in town, and next to the airport. No problem at all with airport noise, there is no airport traffic at night and it was fun to see the planes coming in during the day. This resort is not a luxury or Gold Crown resort, nothing fancy but definitely adequate if you want to try out different Caribbean islands. The front desk area is an open-air building with a market right next to it that seemed to have as much selection as the other markets we found in town and good prices. The resort is very quiet and laid back. There are scheduled get-togethers and activities each night, such as Karoke, Rum Punch Party, etc.
