

Mark Nayman Reviews The Kona Reef Resort

Wednesday, December 31st, 2008

Own one of the timeshare resales at The Kona Reef Resort and enjoy a great vacation in the privacy of your own one, two, or three bedroom condominium suite. This 57-unit timeshare resort offers all the comforts of home including a washer/dryer and fully equipped kitchen with refrigerator, oven/stove, microwave, and dishwasher. One bedroom suites feature a queen bed in the bedroom, and a sleeper sofa in the living area. Two-bedroom suites feature a king bed in the master bedroom, two twin beds in the guest bedroom, and a sleeper sofa in the living area. Three bedroom suites are a combination of a one and two bedroom suite.

The swimming pool at Kona Reef overlooks the great Pacific Ocean, perfect for a Mai Tai toast as the sun sets. Soak in the jet spa, or relax on the sun deck with a book. Barbecue a meal outdoors, or meet friends at the pavilion for your own private luau.

Near the resort is Kailua-Kona, a historic fishing village now filled with restaurants, shops, historical and religious sites, and of course grocery and convenience stores to stock up on vacation necessities. Just a short walk from the Kona Reef is a white sand beach, perfect for snorkeling or just laying out.

The Kona Reef is located at the south end of Kona within easy walking distance to many shops and eating/drinking establishment. This resort has a great location, right on the water, so you can listen to the waves and watch the surfers or the moon on the water. The pool was very nice, and the resort is ocean front, and near a beach that might be swimmable some of the time. Short walk to the town of Kona. From a location point of view this is a ten.
